

I listen to 4 radio stations locally which use translators. I would find it ludicrous to have these forced off the air by LPFM due to proposed rule changes, especially since I financially support 2 of the stations. I know of many others who enjoy these stations and would not want LPFM to displace our choices. Keep "Localism" in check, please.